

Hatty and the Kitty Dilemma

By Ronnie L

An extract from the book

.....Because of her dedication to the musical arts, Hatty had learned how to play the saxophone, piano and flute all in just 1 year, although she still wanted to find and play a diggeridoo one day, as she thought it was rather unique and interesting.

Hatty walked along the pavement for a while, and she was so focused on her thoughts, that she didn't notice a small brown ball on the ground, until she heard a loud noise from nearby.

To order please go to the Contact Me page